Chairvoyant and Palmist.

That Mr. Gordon who calls himself the world's most remarkable clairvoyant and palmist can and does reveal the life of a person's life than any other medium who has ever been in Norwich seems to be proven by the fact that he is visited daily by a large number of people who speak in the highest terms of this wonderful power. Why, he told me my name. He told me my mother's name as it was before she married. He told me the things about myself that I thought no one knew but myself, and similar statements are made by those who have paid him a visit.

Excursion to Newport.

The last excursion of the season to Newport takes place on Wednesday, Aug. 25, on special train via the Central Vermont R. R. and the elegant steamer Chester W. Chapin. Tickets can be procured at all stations between South Londonderry, Vt., and New London. On the return the boat will leave Newport at 4 p. m., arriving in New London at 7 p. m. The special train leaving there at 7:10 for South Londonderry and intermediate stations. Newport is one of the world's famous watering places, attracts thousands of visitors each summer. The surf bathing is ideal, the public beaches offering safe and delightful places to bathe. Among the sights of the town are the magnificent villas owned by some of the wealthiest men of the country. It is also noted for its picturesque, natural beauties, its fine harbor for yachting, its bold cliffs and Eight Bells.

The famous Brothers Byrne, the recognized leaders of pantomime comedy in this country, will give their successful play, the new Eight Bells, at the Broadway theater on Monday, Aug. 22. This production is entirely original and in a class that stands alone. There are no similar performances in this country. The piece throughout is new, with new things that have never before been presented to the public. The Brothers Byrne are artists of a high standard, excelling as pantomimists and as acrobats are unexcelled. Nothing in the acrobatic line is too difficult for them, and the ease with which they accomplish the most difficult feats is marvelous to behold. The Brothers are sufficient in themselves for a show, but wisely allow others who have claims to recognition to help in the merry-making. They have an inexhaustible fund of novelties in the way of stage paraphernalia in the new Eight Bells and there is no limit to trick scenery, marvelous mechanical effects and the pantomimic tricks which keep the audience's attention riveted to the stage at all times. The carriage ride and its misadventure, the funniest and most animated skit, and the John Byrne troupe of acrobats in new and novel feats are all great laugh producers and ideas that originated from the brain of this clever quartette of pantomimists.

BREED THEATER.

"The Black Sheep," Sensational Stock Market Picture.

This great picture represents the story of the prodigal son, and being applicable to every age, one never tires of hearing it told. It presents as fine a sermon and tells as sweet a story of the lost son and his return as has ever been pictured. The wonderful stock market scene where the two brothers meet for the first time in years, when the prodigal son corners the wheat market, causing the other brother's entire loss of fortune, is worthy of a great drama. The Biography triumph, entitled The Friend of the Family, is one of the daintiest comedies seen here in some time, at the same time doing the job of one of the most serious problems of the day. Wonderful gowns, exquisite music, characters, superb settings, and the most satisfying action are some of the alluring charms of this film, and in this picture become the necessary adjuncts of the superb whole. The other fine films of this week include The Pedant Prince, Tender Heart, Trained Falcon, a wonderful sporting picture, and the ludicrous comedy, The Witch's Donkey.

Master Harry Noonan never fails to win a big hand with his excellent songs. Last night was no exception, he being compelled to respond to three encores on When I Marry You, his concert song. Got to Love Someone, going big, too.

LINCOLN PARK.

Vaudeville Show Continues Good—Free Concert Sunday.

Tonight will be the last paid performance of this week's bill at Rustic theater in Lincoln park. Sunday afternoon will come the customary free concert at 3:20, to attend which Norwich patrons should take the 2:45 car from the square.
"Kip" Reed, the bright blackface humorist, is a brisk and breezy entertainer in "A Monkey Honey-moon." Kelly and Adams are clever Irish sketch artists, both of whom are women, singing well. Havello, the black wife juggler, handles balls, knives, canes and other stuff in easy, artistic fashion. His partner, who is his costume while he is dancing on the wire. Morrow and Heins, the two-man minstrel troupe, have some jokes that are good, and a song, Don't Be an Old Maid, Mollie by Mr. Morrow, which is better than that. The closing act, A Rube in Chinatown, by Rice and Elmer, develops some very clever bar work by Frank Rice, the veteran acrobat and comedian, and his partner, who plays the green countryman, while Rice plays the Chinaman.
Young folks who go down to the park principally to dance get a long evening on the floor if they care to improve it all, for the last car from the city doesn't pull out of the park station until 11:05, and the orchestra is on the job until 11 o'clock.

A tank car of 162 barrels of cottonseed oil recently shipped from Kentucky for the Seacoast Canning company is said to have arrived in Eastport this week in good condition. This being the first attempt to ship oil east in other than barrel packages, the experiment was awaited with much interest.
